

Hovea acutifolia

Family : Papilionaceae

Habit : Shrub to 1.8 m. Leaves up to 88 mm x 18 mm, with a thick covering of brown hairs on the underside, broad in the middle, with a rounded base and a pointed tip.

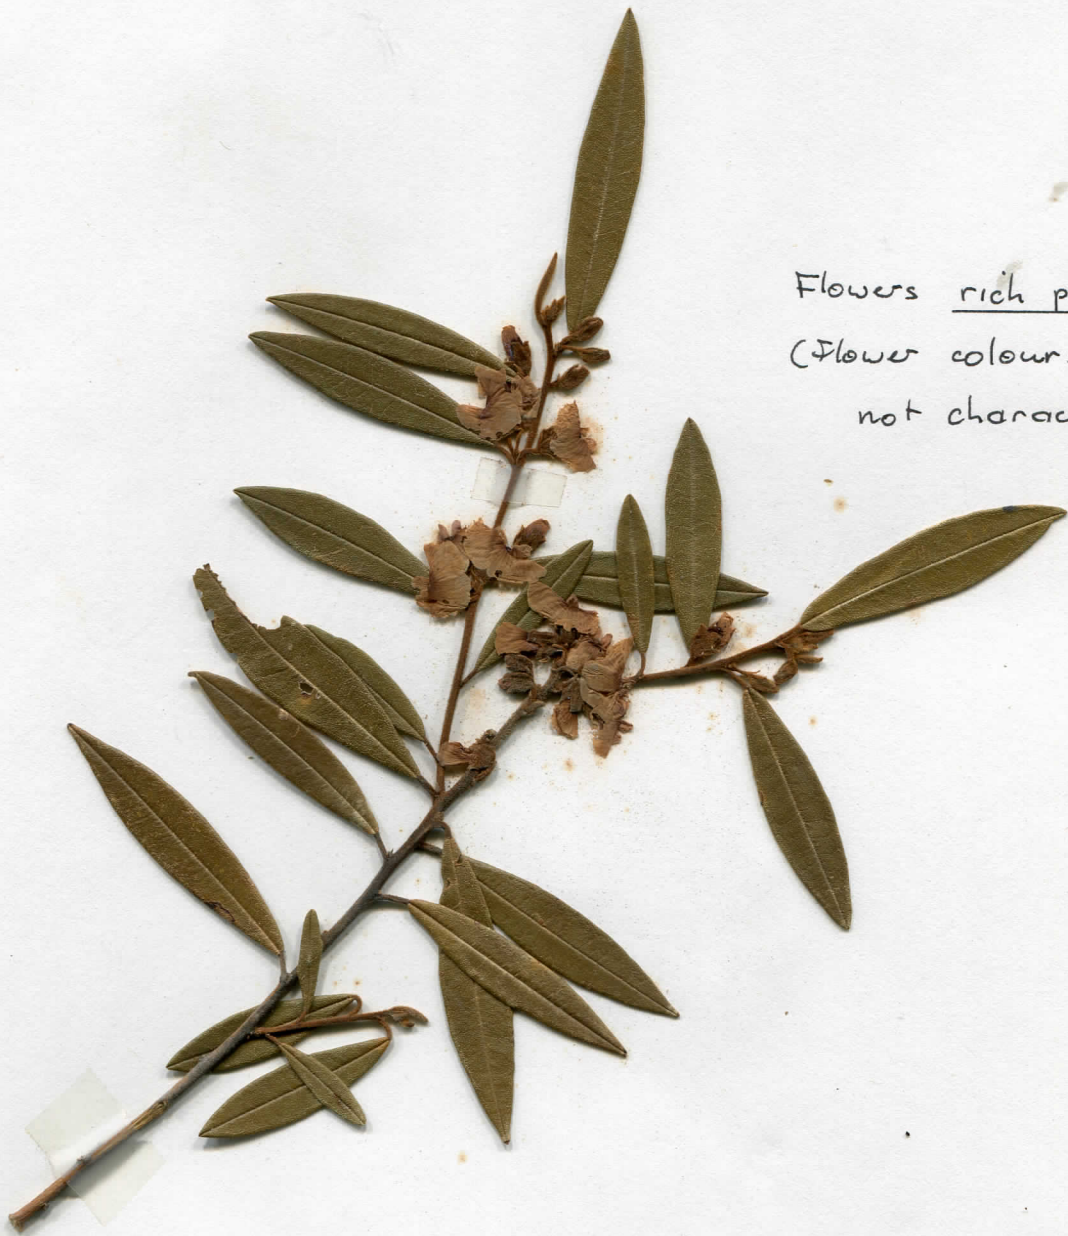

Habitat : Open eucalypt forest

Flowering : Winter to early spring

Collection site : GFP

Collection date : Aug 1987

Reference : Wildflowers of SE Qld, B. Lebler, Vol 1.

Flowers rich purple (Flower colours shown not characteristic).