

Jacksonia scoparia

Family : Fabaceae

Habit : Woody shrub to 3 m.

Habitat : Variable. Reported to like sunny areas, where they form large colonies. At GFP occurs as an understory plant, often in quite heavy shade.

Flowering : October

Collection site : Bruce St Reserve

Collection date : October 1987

Reference : K. Williams, Vol 1

Flowers yellow

