

Lophostemon confertus

(Syn. Tristania conferta)

Family : Myrtaceae

Habit : Large tree to 25 m. Lower trunk covered with fibrous bark - upper portions have smooth bark.

Habitat : Rainforest margins and better-quality eucalypt forest.

Flowering :

Collection site : Chermiside Hills

Collection date : April 1987

Reference : K. Williams Vol. 1

