

Swainsona galegifolia

Family : Fabaceae

Habit : Open, straggely shrub to 1 m. Very fast growing, often forming large clumps.

Habitat : Open forest, where it gets plenty of sun.

Flowering : Most of the year.

Collection site : West of Blandford St, between Raymond Rd and Alcester St

Collection date : November 1987

Reference : K. Williams Vol 1

Flowers purple

Underside of leaves silver-green